GTP/Kulp

Investigation of Gus Kulp, 221 Seaside Ave., Atlantic City, former Police Officer of Trenton, N.J.

Operative reported at Mr. Watson's office and kept an appointment with Mr. Palzer this A.M. With Mr. Russell went out to the Russell Place and brought Mrs. Russell down to Mr. Watson's office. Then received instructions from Mr. Palzer to go to Atlantic City, N.J. to look up some information.

Upon arrival in Atlantic City Operative went to the address of Mr. Gus Kulp, 221 Seaside Ave. and interviewed Mrs. Kulp, who stated that her husband was out and gave me the address where her husband could be found. She told me that he would be at her son-in-law's place of business, which is a fruit store at 1606 Pacific Street.

Operative proceeded to that address and interviewed Mr. Kulp, who stated that he remembers the Easton woman very well and that at one time he was on beat in the vicinity of #338 S. Broad Street and recalls receiving orders to answer a complaint which the Easton woman had made about a young man and woman who were living in her rooming house as man and wife and who were continually quarreling and that she wanted to have them put out. Mrs. Easton informed Mr. Kulp that they were not married, just living together and always making a lot of noise and trouble for her. Mr. Kulp ordered them out of the house and said that Mrs. Easton would not make a complaint against them. He does not remember the dates or the names of the man and woman mentioned. Operative asked him if he could recall any other trouble around the Easton house and he replied that that was the only occasion. He further stated that he knew very little about Mrs. Easton.

Operative then asked Mr. Kulp if he ever heard of
